Good morning ,

I am sorry that I can't attend the APM tonight, as I have another appointment at that time.

From a school point of view, there's not really a lot to report other than we are again oversubscribed for new children starting in September and our numbers on roll continue to be close to maximum. As the birth rate has experienced a national dip, we are not anticipating that County will build the school a 7th classroom, as local schools (other than us and Rocklands Primary) have plenty of spare spaces.

Please feel free to direct Councillors to look at our school website for a list of the events taking place across the summer term.

Kind regards,

Julie Dekker
